

Programa de estudios de la asignatura

Inglés Avanzado I

Área de desarrollo profesional

Clave: ID251

Objetivo general de la asignatura

Al finalizar el curso, el alumno:

Reforzará las habilidades auditivas del idioma inglés a través de conversaciones grabadas, canciones, videos y películas en inglés. Mejorar la pronunciación del idioma mediante del análisis y discusión de temas relacionados con la vida cotidiana, la escuela, el ambiente laboral así como de temas y problemas de relevancia actual.

Temas y subtemas

1. Economic.

1.1 Classical economics.

1.1 Growth Theory.

1.2 Growth Across Time.

1.3 Capital and Rental Cost.

1.4 Mathematical growth model.

1.5 Success and Failure of Social Systems.

1.6 Saving, Finance, and Social Security.

1.7 Microeconomics and Macroeconomics.

Introducing points in an argument about the next questions:

-How important is economics?

-How is the economy in your country?

-What are the biggest economic problems in the world?

2. International Commerce.

2.1 International trade.

2.2 International organizations or treaties concerning trade commerce.

2.3 International Commerce Terms

2.4 International Commerce Terms law.

2.5 Sovereignty in International Commerce law.

2.6 Treaty. Categories of treaty

2.7 Multinational Corporations. Are they Devils in Disguise?

2.8 Trade can help the poor?

3. Contract.

3.1 A Letter of Intent.

3.2 Resolving Differences.

3.3 Drafting a Distribution.

3.4 Agreement.

3.5 Privity of Contract.

3.6 Assignment of the Contract.

3.7 Breach of Contract & Termination.

4. Politic.

4.1 Political system types of governments.

4.2 International politics in Mexico.

4.3 Environment politics.

4.4 Political activism.

4.5 Sovereignty.

5. Introducing points in an argument about the next questions:

- How to Deal with High Oil Prices?
- Government Pumping Money into the Economy is not the Solution for our Economic Problems.
- Should the public sector be privatized?